

The Zambia's Scholarship Fund is committed to maintaining your confidence and trust, and accordingly maintains the following privacy policy to protect personal information you provide online.

Zambia's Scholarship Fund is Commitment to Online Security

Physical, electronic and managerial procedures have been employed to safeguard the security and integrity of personal information. Billing information is encrypted whenever transmitted or received online. Personal information is accessible only by staff and volunteers designated to handle online complaints or requests.

Personal Information that ZSF May Collect Online

The ZSF collects the following types of personal information: names, postal and e-mail addresses, phone and facsimile numbers, billing information, and complaint information. The ZSF may also collect business information from sole proprietorships that apply for membership or program participation, some of which might constitute personal information, as well as personal information from individuals acting solely in their business capacity. The ZSF's complaint form is available upon request. ZSF will process your complaint according to its own privacy and security policies.

The ZSF does not collect or maintain information from those actually known to be under the age of 13, and no part of our site is structured to attract anyone under the age of 13.

How ZSF May Use Personal Information Collected Online

The ZSF will not use your personal information other than for the purpose for which it was submitted without your consent.

- The ZSF does not Share your information unless noted by you.
- Help Us Keep Your Personal Information Accurate

If your personal information changes or you would like to review the personal information we may have on file, please email us with the new information at raicheljenn@yahoo.com
